"land of immortal"

Hear the silence of the winds making your own destiny go and face the mirror of their sin

Only brave hearts found the way breaking all the dragon's spell

cross the Argon's glade with heart in hand

Land of immortals I wait for my day

to reach the wisdom of your skies

Land of immortals you must belong to me

from here to eternity

And between Elgard's hills near the ancient ruins of Kron

you will face the trick of the old dwarf

To obtain the second key you have to cross the bloody sea

where the thirst of Tharos never ends

Land of immortals I wait for my day

to reach the wisdom of your skies

from here to eternity

Holy force of wisdom spread through all the air

I shall breathe you forever to end this epic holy quest

My way will be hard but I would do all to reach the valleys where true heroes ride beyond the ivory gates

Land of immortals I wait for my day

to reach the wisdom of your skies

from here to eternity
