"Shadows Of Death"

The old elfking Tarish knows well the way
Through the caverns
To Dar-Kunor's forgotten entrance

For two days they walked in the wild
On the pathway to darkness
The reason they survived, it was Dargor

Finally they saw in the black and evil marsh
There lied the passageway between snakes and hellish mud

Shadows of death
Follow behind into Dar-Kunor caves

Shadows of death
The holy mission of Iras' new friends

Five heroes ready to die
Die for the whole world
Die to protect
The green of the earth
The green of the earth

Black waters moving are signs
Dar-Kunor's river
(The water is cold)
The water is cold there
Tarish dived into the marshes
He soon disappeared
(Into the black icy water)
Black icy water

Then, when he appeared
They welcome him as heroes do.
He found the caves of the ancient brother elves

Shadows of death
Follow behind into Dar-Kunor caves

Shadows of death

The holy mission of Iras' new friends

Five heroes ready to die
Die for the whole world
Die to protect
The green of the earth
The green of the earth

The green and the wonderful beloved our Mother Earth

"Now is the time to face the underworld of Dar-Kunor Perhaps never to return alive"

Shadows of death
Follow behind into Dar-Kunor caves

Shadows of death
The holy mission of Iras' new friends

Five heroes ready to die
Die to protect
The green of the earth
The green of the earth

The green and the wonderful beloved Mother of all
