Fire of wisdom light the sky let me go on through this dark evil ground A veil of fog now covers all something is happening my heart must be strong Keep away monsters of hell
No, I won't give you my inviting flesh

Deformed creatures all around me crept out from ancient and unholy crypts They'll be your madness they'll be your end they'll lick your bones and they'll drink your brain
Keep away monsters of hell
No, I won't give you my inviting flesh

Your tongue will be torn your bowels my food your body impaled of shit will be full now foolish warrior hear my words

You are condemned and you will come with us all beyond the gates of infinity

I'm the mighty warrior hero of the northern lands Algalord is calling so your hell must wait

your body impaled of shit will be full
now foolish warrior hear my words

beyond the gates of infinity
