Where sun creates shadow's games
Where tragic echoes speak of death why Lord why
Between the ruin trough lakes of holy blood
I walk in tears for my wasted land

Echoes of tragedy caved on my steel
In this neverending fight against the beast
Soldies of twilight turn back to hell
Burn in your fie of glory for me will be your end

Mothers and childern embraced in blood
Torture and rape will leave their sign
After the sorrow I call the holy rage
Burn in my heart now flames of blind hate

Echoes of tragedy caved on my steel
In this neverending fight against the beast
Soldies of twilight turn back to hell

Echoes of tragedy caved on my steel
In this neverending fight against the beast
Soldies of twilight turn back to hell
Burn in your fie of glory for me will be your end
