Mirrors reflecting the broken illusion of one lost
I see through mind's eye
Protect me while going (on) this task of your fear
And fading hope
My soul is one

The Sun only rose
Of innocent souls
In the shades that reveal by a fate never told
The sea of new hope
One fear is reborn
In this long search we wait for
The Great Heaven's call

Fragments of torture
Existence revealing the whispers
Of lonely ghostlands by shadows
Enlightning the souls from the evil
A darkened grave
And mortal pain
The Sun only rose
Of innocent souls
In the shades that reveal by a fate never told
The sea of new hope
One fear is reborn In this long search we wait for
The Great Heaven's call
The Call!
The Sun only rose
Of innocent souls
In the shades that reveal by a fate never told
The sea of new hope
One fear is reborn
In this long search we wait for
The Great Heaven's call
The Call!
