After five long days the final plan
The wise words of Iras convinced all of them
The path to Erloria could be a safer way
To reach the Grey Mountains, Dar-Kunor's old caves

Epic Horizons, majestic woods
Green golden valleys moving to north

Seven wizards came from distant lands
to meet kings, dwarves, elves and dragonlords
Elgard's eye can see the fear of the world
It's the last dramatic angels' call

King Uriel proclaimed the last holy words
The new sun was rising, it was time to go
May the wise angels give them the strength
To face all the fears that the darkness awakes

From the high towers the people acclaim
The chosen heroes now crossing the gates

Seven wizards came from distant lands
To meet kings, dwarves, elves and dragonlords
Elgard's eye can see the fear of the world
It's the last dramatic angels' call
