In those silent shades of grey
I will find a place
To escape the endless night
To find a new sun

I know it is my fate
Bond to Erian's old tale
I'll be always there
Fighting the ancient sin
Moonshine in this eternal night

Angels are calling from divine lost crystal realms
Riding from heaven
For the magic of the wizard's dream

In those mystic lights of dawn
Between heart and soul
Elgard's calling for new hope
To avoid our fall

I know it is my fate
Bond to Erian's old tale
I'll be always there
Fighting the ancient sin
Moonshine in this eternal night

Riding from heaven
For the magic of the wizard's dream

Riding from heaven
For the magic of the wizard's dream
The wizard's dream
