Demons of abyss wait for my pride on wings of glory I'll fly brave and wild I'll stop your madness your thirst for blood to bring them peace where love must reign

A while ago the elder told dark will fall again my land will see the light no more my beloved Algalord My horse run wild the beast is back to conquer my reign
the sea the hills rivers and lakes call my holy name

Fight your holy war raise your mighty sword and ride You're the chosen face the evil son of holy ice

Mighty warrior for the legend ride again from the hills for peace and love to the sea of gold my land must be free

I cross the forest of the elves while my heart pounds fast sky is grey wind no more time has stopped its race My horse run wild the beast is back to conquer my
reign
the sea the hills rivers and lakes call my holy name

Fight your holy war raise your mighty sword and ride
You're the chosen face the evil son of holy ice

from the hills for peace and love to the sea of gold
my land must be free

March to hell Irengard brothers together we'll face the flames fearless and brave on the grass where blood we'll shed flowers of real hope will bud again And on the grass where blood we'll shed flowers of hope will bud again

Now leave your soul castles united we'll be strong I'll lead you to this holy war to save all our thrones to give our people the joy to be free to see our beloved sun shine again

Mighty warrior for the legend ride again
from the hills for peace and love to the sea of gold
my land must be free
