Heart is pounding curtain's drawn.
All seats sold out and lights are on.
Cameras flashing to the beat.
Oh yeah!
Hair is teased and makeup's done,
the crowd is getting ready to song along.
I can feel all eyes on me,
Oh yeah!

So come on, come on, come on and go and get it.
You're on, you're on, you're on this very minute.
Come on, come on, you know that you've got nothing to hide.
So come on, come on and drop the hesitation.
Just close your eyes and put your rocks in motion.
The game is on it's time to let the dice collide.
Cause tonight, tonight is your night, tonight you have arrived!

This is what you all waited for,
so put your cellphones on record.
Clap your hands and scream for more.
Oh yeah!!

So come on, come on, just go up there and get it.
You're on, you're on, you're on this very minute.
Look up, look up there's a brand new star in the sky.
Come on, come on don't waste another second
Go out, go out and grab all the attention
The stage is yours to keep, the moment is right.
Cause tonight, tonight is your night, tonight you have
arrived!

So come on, come on, come on and go and get it.
You're on, you're on, you're on this very minute.
Come on, come on, you know that you've got nothing to
hide.
Cause tonight, tonight is your night, tonight you have arrived!
