Oh, I can't sleep, 'cause there's a monster under my bed a racing heartbeat and now the monster lives in my head Pour some wine and it's hard to combine happiness with love
I've been standing in line for such long time, I think I'm about to lose my mind So if people say we share the same eyes, then why can't you see what I see I'm sorry if it hits you by surprise, but you never thought much of me

Still I can't live without your stupid love although it drives me insane either low or high up above, tell me how can I trust you when I don't even know your name

Me... 'cause I don't want you to go I'm old enough to see, so why can't you just let me know

I can't live without your stupid love
although it drives me insane
either low or high up above,

Still I can't live without your stupid love
although it drives me insane
either low or high up above, tell me how can I love you, please tell me what's your, what's your name...
