I'm leaving here,
With no place for me to hide.
All those memories,
Are still stirring inside.
The Feelings I felt,
Drove me insane.
But now I know,
I'll never see you again.

Chorus:
I've turned my head,
I've run away.
Don't want to live another day.
Going insane and that's no lie.
I live in the Dark with my
Hatred so high.

I lie awake dreaming of you
But my wishes never come true.
Your cold heart has made me feel
That your love for me was never real.

I'm leaving, I'm leaving
I'm leaving insane.

I see your face, everywhere.
I close my eyes,
But it won't disappear. No, no, no.
Why did ya leave,
And where did ya go?
I've gone insane,
And there's no turning back.

I've turned my head,
I've run away,
Don't want to live another day.
Going insane and that's no lie.
I live in the dark with my
Hatred so high.
