Once you have been there at night
You will never forget
Now the trees hide the light
From the place where we met
I can still see the smoke
Rising up from the ground
As the rain starts to soak

Final resting place for the fifty buried there
Roxamands cast a spell upon the tree they held so dear
Once known as ruby camp where Mervin Wheeler left his stamp
But the looters stole his plaque
And now his ghost waist till they come back
Mary died age 17, she left a message, or so it seems Moonlit mountaintop holds the story of her screams...

My good people as you pass by
As you are now so once was I
As I am now you soon shall be
Prepare yourselves to follow me
