Most people think that the earth cannot last
We've gone too far, we've lost touch with the past
Forward we led to a future of dreams
Long way to go to a more tranquil scene

Into the darkness my shadow it fades into black
Inside I knew there was no turning back
Something surrounded me making it harder to see
Suddenly I realized I was surrounded by trees

Each has a face as I slowed up my pace to a crawl
Barely I could hear voices from all
Trapped by the wind in a circle of light I stood still Then came a vision of life so incredibly real

Nothing was spoken but I could feel thoughts being shared
Chill still inside me but I was not scared
My curiosity bubbled inside of me
Faster I followed and stronger the forces seemed to be A force I could feel
A light I could see
Oh what could it be?

I was told in the circle that only one saw the way
Only one way to reverse the decay
But many were needed all with open minds
People who know what they need, they will find

Witness the coming at last of the Prophet Child
A hero, a savior so strong and so bold
Witness the coming at last of the Prophet Child
Freedom and honor and greatness till now unfolded

The freedom you sold
Was always more precious than gold
Know deep in your heart
That we can make a new start

Prophet Child! X4

The freedom you sold
Was always more precious than gold
Know deep in your heart
That we can make a new start
Prophet Child! X4
