Open up the page and it's gone But I still see it Life is going counter clock Passing me again Love has left, but I'm still here And we could have tried a hundred of times But this chapter is done

You could have gone listening to love and it kept you wanting more It's time to open up the book and let the pages go go go go There will never be another book of us I'll be damned if I let you keep the book of us Never be no storytelling, they can't read the good and bad I'm ripping off the pages, let them witness what we had Whoa, when I thought it'd be hard to write
