V1

Skies are the bluest shade of blue/ watching the sunrise in the rear view I am something real, I am something new/ now my heart belongs to me not you Bottles empty and the shadows gone/ somewhere the moon sings me a love song been trapped in a place where I don't belong/ I made up my mind and I'm moving on

I can't believe I loved that boy once upon a time/ he tried to crush my soul and drag me down but I survived I climbed a canyon or two chasing high/ to find that all I needed was just me myself and I

Hook:

This is me, this is me this is me
I'm everything that you never thought I could be
An angel in armor is what you made of me
Even though the battle is over, I'll always be a soldier
Walk on through the wind (walk on through the rain)
You're gonna make it (unjaded)
Walk on through the wind (walk on through the rain)
You're gonna make it (unfaded)

V2.

Two hands on the wheel driving far away/ you can't touch this feeling no not today I lost everything, I came undone so I could taste the rain before I kissed the sun
I see stars dancing up in the night sky, I found myself somewhere lost in this lie
And I know everything is gonna be alright, I won't give up now I learned to fight

Illusions of you took control of my mind, I was vulnerable in love once upon a time
I climbed a canyon or two chasing high to find that all I needed was just me, myself & I

Hook:

This is me, this is me this is me

I'm everything that you never thought I could be
An angel in armor is what you made of me
Even though the battle is over, I'll always be a soldier
Walk on through the wind (walk on through the rain)
You're gonna make it (unjaded)
Walk on through the wind (walk on through the rain)
You're gonna make it (unfaded)

Bridge:

There's always something beautiful in every tragedy, so take this day make this day into what you want it to be

I'm not the same girl that I used to be, you made an angel in armor, angel in armor of me (You should know that)

Hook:

This is me, this is me this is me
I'm everything that you never thought I could be
An angel in armor is what you made of me
Even though the battle is over, I'll always be a soldier
Walk on through the wind (walk on through the rain)
You're gonna make it (unjaded)
Walk on through the wind (walk on through the rain)
You're gonna make it (unfaded)

Outro:

Live your own life, dream your own dreams, never falter always believe Pieces were broken but you're gonna put them back the wheels are turning round and you're not looking back Live your own life, dream your own dreams, never
falter always believe Pieces were broken but you're gonna put them back, engines burning now and you're not looking back
No you're not looking back, No you're not looking back
