Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on
Familiar faces
New beginnings
Face your fears and carry on

Slipping past the point of where fantasy meets reality
We must grow and time will show that the pain is not forever
Falling fast beyond the emptiness of insanity
The sun will shine again on the suffering eyes of today

Motionless we feel
As time races
Through out consciousness

Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on
Familiar faces
New beginnings
Face your fears and carry on

The river of emotions
Runs deep within your soul
A pool of desperate
Hopes that drains
As darkness fades away
Embracing the mystery
Your heart beats faster
As you take a look to see
The road that winds before you

Motionless we feel
As time races
Through out consciousness

Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on

Familiar faces
New beginnings
Face your fears and carry on

Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on
Familiar faces
New beginnings
Face your fears and carry on

An ever changing journey
The hands of time keep turning
People come and people go
But memories are set in stone

Motionless we feel
As time races

Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on
Familiar faces
New beginnings

Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on
Familiar faces
New beginnings

Fading shadows
Drifting onward
Seasons change as life rolls on
Familiar faces
New beginnings
