Adrift
In a sea of hopelessness
Watching
The wake of reality fade

Take my pain
Release my fear
Stop the world
Around me
Lose control
Of all your senses
Time stands still
In your mind

Take my pain
Release my fear
Stop the world

Trapped behind a wall
Emotions wrapped tight
Breaking the rules
You set for yourself
Relinquish control
In only for a moment
Engulfed in flames
Your heart bleeds forgiveness

Watching the world
Leaving you behind
Wanting to be free
Fearing the end
Waiting for daylight
Hiding in the darkness
Losing your feeling
Crossing the thin line

Raining memories
Upon deserted highways
Freedom rings through the night
Grasp for your lifeline

Grasp for your lifeline
Transcending resistance
Defying your existence
Remain on the inside

Help me, I'm drowning
Save me, from my mind
Release me, now

Looking at a mirror of pain
Reflections of madness
Build as snowflakes on a windowsill
Lie to yourself
To conquer
The fear of breaking
Once again

Help me, I'm drowning
Save me, from my mind

Trapped behind a wall
Emotions wrapped tight
Breaking the rules
You set for yourself
Relinquish control
In only for a moment
Engulfed in flames

Watching the world
Leaving you behind
Wanting to be free
Fearing the end
Waiting for daylight
Hiding in the darkness
Losing your feeling
