Rise of the sun
A new day has begun
Search the horizons
Clouded thoughts unwind
Unseen to the eye
A portrait in the sky
Haunted by the past
Memories will pass

Hopeless vision never changing
Destined to failure
So they say
Static vision shall be obtained

Walk into darkness
Nothing is plain to see
Memorable triumphs
Remain deep inside
Journey onward
To spark the fire
Hopes shall rise up
Once again

Hopeless vision never changing
Destined to failure
So they say
Static vision shall be obtained
Push forth, catch the new day
Static vision never changing
Never changing!

Hopeless vision never changing
Destined to failure
So they say
Static vision shall be obtained
Push forth, catch the new day
Static vision never changing
