Piano: Martha Waterman

Electric gulls and Keys: Kevin Bartlett

I looked out over the blue

And breathed in the new, old air

Wondered where it had been

Before it got here

Little bell in a cage

Singing to me happily

I wanted to swim out far

To keep him company

Mother Sea blew her

Sweet breath on me

Telling me there's so much

More to be seen

Yes I remember now

I remember now

How it goes

I remember the tears

For the jellyfish

Drowned in the sand

I wavered in the waves

With seaweed in my hand

I wanted to fly under

The wings of the gulls

Overhead

I longed to know what lies

Beyond that line

Mother Sea blew her

Sweet breath on me

Telling me there's so much

More I can be

Mother Sea blew her

Sweet breath on me

Telling me there's so much

More I must be

Yes I remember now

I remember now

How it goes

Now I know just what

My godmother was for

Mother Sea blew her

Sweet breath on me
Telling me there's so much
More I must see
Mother Sea blew her
Sweet breath on me
Telling me there's so much
More we can be
Yes I remember now
I remember now
How it goes
