I will always remember
The first time that we met
And the first time that I kissed your lips
Is a thing I won't forget

The special way you held me
Is the way you hold me still
And I knew right then that you love me
And I know you always will

Ain't that love
Ain't that how it's suppose to be
When two hearts come together as one
Just like you and me

Ain't that love
Shining in your eyes
Heaven sent from up above
Ain't that love

My grandpa and my grandma
My momma and my dad
Didn't have a lot of things
But love is what they had

Their love kept them together
Through the many years
Though life was hard
They shared it all through the laughter and the tears

Ain't that love
Ain't that how it's suppose to be
When two hearts come together as one
Just like you and me

Ain't that love
Shining in your eyes
Heaven sent from up above
Ain't that love

Baby, you're the sunshine
That brightens up my day

And I will always stand by you
Darling come what may

And I will always love you
To have and to hold
And I'll keep my every promise to you
With this band of gold

Ain't that love
Ain't that how it's suppose to be
When two hearts come together as one
Just like you and me

Ain't that love
Shining in your eye's
Ain't that love
Ain't that love
