Taken.

When I look into your eyes and see my life for the first time and I forget to take a breath.

So overwhelmed, so completely shaken.

I'm taken.

When you kiss my face and the world just falls away
and I feel so safe just lying in your arms.

In the dark my sleeping heart awakens.

I'm taken.

You get to me.

Some place deep inside you run to me.

There's no where else to hide and I'm losing.

Somewhere in the two of us there's nothing but our sweet love and us.

Taken.

With all of you and I can't help myself.

I can't imagine love with anybody else.

In my heart since you found your way.

I'm taken.

You get to me.

Some place deep inside you run to me.

There's no where else to hide and I'm losing.

Somewhere in the two of us there's nothing but our sweet love and us.

Taken.

Oh, I'm taken.

I'm taken.
