You don't know but, you've just been served
All this time, is this what you deserve
Now face the madness, and take what you can learn
It's a fact of life, play with fire and you'll get burned...

urned... How many lessons, before I learn
Turn... the page, divide the book of life and take a look

(it goes...)

[Chorus]

Two chapters, plain type, black and white I know
It's something simple, leave a check before you go
Make it out, to the one who hurt you most
It don't make sense, but hey that's life that's the way it goes

Now what's it matter, what you've been told
I get more stupid, as I'm getting older
Gotta break this habit, and turn a new leaf over Who the fk am I..kidding, just hand the damn pen over...

ver...How many lessons, before I learn
Turn... the page divide the book of life and take a look

(it goes...)

[Chorus]

Two chapters, plain type, black and white I know
It's something simple, leave a check before you go
Make it out, to the one who hurt you most
It don't make sense, but hey that's life that's the way it goes

You don't know but, you've just been served
All this time, is this what you deserve...

erve... How many lessons, before I learn
Turn... the page divide the book of life and take a look

Learn... that pain and sadness, won't change your worth
