"King Of Karaoke"

A cash point casanova with stars in your eyes, you buy a few more drinks and tell a few more lies. And every night's another drunken pantomime. You get that sinking feeling, and reach for your lines.

You're the king of karaoke, and that's everything you'd like to be
It's so easy when you're someone else
And you always forgot yourself

You're the king of karaoke and that's everything you'd like to be
When you've chosen what you wanna sing
Just open your mouth and spread your wings

[BREAK]

Who's the king of karaoke?,
Who's the king of karaoke?,
Who's the king of karaoke?,
Who's the king of karaoke?â€¦
