Falling in madness, you wreek of despair
Calling for spirits to take all your cares
The guilt that you burden, the hate that you breathe
Your lord's now your scapegoat for your shameful deeds

Scream in despair for your own soul - You're crucified
Scream in despair for your own soul - You're crucified

Crucified for your condemnations
You were in vain, you're actions cold
Crucified for your accusations
You were in vain, you shamed your 'lord'

Point at your saviour to covert your own will Call in the faithful for the final kill
Shameful the spectre, your dick in your hand
The triumph, the power, your lord's word you sham

Scream in despair for your own soul - You're crucified
Scream in despair for your own soul - You're crucified

Crucified for your condemnations
You were in vain, you're actions cold
Crucified for your accusations
You were in vain, you shamed your 'lord'

Distinguish the border of heaven and hell
Now forging the axis to drop all your shells
The horror in actions, the glory profane
Just point at your saviour and scream out his name

Scream in despair for your own soul - You're crucified
Scream in despair for your own soul - You're crucified

Crucified for your condemnations
You were in vain, you're actions cold
Crucified for your accusations
You were in vain, you shamed your 'lord'
