Melody: Urs Odermatt

Words: Urs Odermatt, Sandro Valente

I have married a bitch, a long time ago
I was true to her, and I loved her so
But she's cheating on me (She's cheatin' you)
But she's cheating on me (She's cheatin' you)
She's a bitch now I know
That's my destiny

I've met her on a gig, and I fell in love
We married soon, and I sold all my guitars
But she's cheating on me (She's cheatin' you)
But she's cheating on me (She's cheatin' you)
She's a bitch now I know
That's my destiny
I gave her two kids, that's important to me
And she said, I love my family
But she's cheating on me (She's cheatin' you)
But she's cheating on me (She's cheatin' you)
She's a bitch now I know
That's my destiny

I stopped crying for her, because it's a waste of time
She has another guy, he's younger than me
But he's cheating on her (He's cheating her)
But he's cheating on her (He's cheating her)
She's a bitch now I know
That's my destiny
