"President From Hell"

Do you know who you are, which is not what you think.
Â'Cause you are what You is, which how you are. YouÂ're a foolish young man. Wake up and eat
Candy.
YouÂ're a president from hell; throw a nation in the well. Would you like a Portrait, or a cup of coffee?
Do you want to be Caucasian? Then hereÂ's a demonstration. You learn to play Golf, then you can learn to be a moron.
Fire your boss, then sleep all day. The go to a party and say.
(O, O, O, O) Hey darling, can I buy you a drink. You must be a Libra.
YouÂ're Jewish? Your place or mine?
Who is who? And what is what? Did you know what you said, or not think at
All? Did you do what you please, or against your will?
Do you know what you are?
[Do you know what you are?]
Which is not what you is
[Are you sure about that]
What is what?
[I just need someone to call]
Who is who?
[Oh, please somebody]
This is that [Come on and help]
So do you know who you are, which is not what you think.
ItÂ's them or us, or us against them.
YouÂ're a president from hell.
President from hell
YouÂ're a president from hell.
President from hell
President from hell
President from hell
