They may throw stones against the glass
But there's no need to worry
One day they'll want our help and ask
We'll turn and say we're sorry

If all the stars fall from the sky
And we have nothing to cling to
There'll always be a you and I
And this is the song I'll sing you

You and me should stick together
We were built to last forever

Shatterproof
Don't let go of your youth
If we don't run the race
Then we can never lose

Shatterproof
Because we know the truth
If we don't run the race
Then we can never lose

It doesn't matter what they say
Because the night is calling
I know a place where we can play
And watch the statues falling

'Cause with this feeling in our blood
We'll be forever young
And our two hearts will always thud
Just like the rhythm of drums

You and me should stick together
We were built to last forever

Shatterproof
Don't let go of your youth
If we don't run the race
Then we can never lose

With just our hearts to guide us

We'll leave them all behind us
Oh no, they'll never find us now
Oh no

Shatterproof
Don't let go of your youth
If we don't run the race
Then we can never lose

Shatterproof
Because we know the truth
If we don't run the race
Then we don't ever have to lose

And we'll always be shatterproof
Shatterproof
Shatterproof
Shatterproof
