Would you be happy with a girl just like me
You'd be happy with just about anyone but me
'Cause I'm already gone, already gone
This took too long, you took too long.

You're never gonna see what I see
I'm never gonna be where I need
With me in your arms
I'm never gonna touch the ceiling
Never gonna feel that feeling
With me in your arms
'Cause I need time to breathe.

Don't you ever dare say that I never ever tried to make it work
'Cause I tried everything and it's never gonna work
'Cause I'm already gone, already gone
This took too long, you took too long.

You're never gonna see what I see
I'm never gonna be where I need
With me in your arms
I'm never gonna touch the ceiling
Never gonna feel that feeling
With me in your arms
'Cause I need time to breathe.

I need time to be free
To get what I need
It's time to be on my own.

You're never gonna see what I see
I'm never gonna be where I need
With me in your arms
I'm never gonna touch the ceiling
Never gonna feel that feeling
With me in your arms
'Cause I need time to breathe...
