I woke up this morning to a guilty sky above
i didn't wanna get out of my bed when i was dreaming i was so in love so in i wish i that i was dead can you dig it

i don't feel good i feel really sick
i think i might have even shit my pants shaking can't stop shaking on right out of my skin can't find the strength i need to stand

can you help me
can you help me
i don't think i wanna live today
look into these eyes and tell me something here worth living for today well i worked so hard for what i got and that aint much what i got is mine all mine sometimes a helping hand is everything can you understand that i feel too lost to find

cuz look into these eyes and then you'll realize that i aint meant to be this is not happening

yeah yeah yeah yeah

something here worth living for living for today
yeah
