Beautiful Human (Barone)

When I look in your eyes
See my reflection when I look in your eyes
When I look for a sign
Know my intention when I look for a sign

Im looking for a beautiful human

I looked around in L.A.
and I think I lost myself on the way
I had to hide behind shades
Had a dream about my sweet Everglades

Im looking for a beautiful human.

Houston made me a man
Back in Manhattan learned to get what I can
Like a heart made of gold
Sometimes Im feeling that the last ones been sold

Im looking for a beautiful human.

Spent some time on the run like a bandit with a heart for a gun
Just a matter of time before Im guilty of a passionate crime

Im looking for a beautiful human.
