In your native tongue I'll sing for you
In your native tongue I'll sing for you
This night I want to share a dream with you
This night I want to share a dream with you

Looking at you, feel no pain
Beach intoxicates me
Sun bleached my brain

Where the rivers meet I'll wait for you
Where the rivers meet I'll wait for you
One black, one white, one river made from two
One black, one white, one river made from two

Looking at you, I lose control
The rhythm mystifies me
The music's got my soul

In your native tongue I'll sing for you
In your native tongue I'll sing for you
This night I want to share a dream with you
This night I want to share a dream with you
