It's in the way you came straight up to me
And said, you will be the one.
And in the way you've fallen to your knee
Saying, heal me with a kiss.
It's in the way you've showed your soft side up
And said, kill me with your love.
It's what we came here for,
It's why we came here now,
For the love we give and give away.
It's in the way you've turned things upside down
And said, you may now touch my soul.
And in the way you've held the cup, filling it up with tears,
Love, touch me with your grace.
This time around it's coming down to this,
Darling, love, change me in my flesh.
It's what we came here for,
It's why we came here now,
For the love we give and give away.
It's in the air, it's everywhere,
I turn and look to find you there.
If this is fair, I'll tell you this, my love,
It's the love we give and give and give away.
