[Choir]

Darkness will come to bury us all
We won't rise again
We shall be thrown all away
Like we threw 'way you
We slide on ice into a fire burning all mankind

1.

The darkness will come and bury us all
We can't deny that we will fall
The hangman's attack we can't defend
He smiles at us and offers us the end

2.

We thought we were strong and in deed, yes, we are
We are too strong, we went too far
To turn around we're not strong enough
Mother takes revenge from beyond and above

B.

Why do we scream?
We are afraid
Mother bleeds
We die.

R.

We don't deserve Mother Earth
Mother, please forgive us

3.

The ship will sink and so will we all
We'll die in the floods, noone will recall
We cut our Mother deep in her flesh
But her wounds will scar, it's our own certain death

B.

Why do we scream...

R.

We don't deserve Mother Earth
Mother, please forgive us

Solo: T

X.

We need you, so we kill you
But you will forgive us. Will you?
We destroy you though depend on you
And cry about end of you
We are the torch that burns your flesh

[Choir]

Darkness will come and bury us all...

B.

Why do we scream...

R.

We don't deserve Mother Earth
Mother, please forgive us all
Please forgive us all
Please forgive us all
Please forgive us all

Melody: P+T

[Epilogue]

We are headless children, we are crimson sons
We are headless children, we are fallen ones

In the darkness of our dreams
In the darkest of our dreams

I am afraid
I am afraid

We'll die in ice melted by fire
Noone will survive
