The love in you and the love in me
That's all that matters
All the rest is just vanity
That time will shatter
The only treasure in the life we live
Is in the measure of the love we give
All that matters in the end will be
The love in you and the love in me
That's all that matters
All that matters
Every heart must change its shape
To fit the space that the lifetime makes
Some regrets and some mistakes
We touch happiness
But we can't hold her
Feelings come and disappear
I've known the laughter
I've cried those tears
I should know better after all these years
But I'm no wiser,
I'm just older
The love in you and the love in me
That's all that matters
All the rest is just vanity
That time will shatter
The only treasure in the life we live
Is in the measure of the love we give
All that matters in the end will be
The love in you and the love in me
Oh, oh
That's all that matters
All that matters
Love is the treasure
It's all the question of priority
We've got so much
That we just don't need
If it ain't got nothing
Then it's a luxury
We can learn to live without it
The love in you and the love in me
