Facing the days now
It's hard to take the first step
Open my eyes
Force myself to take the next breath
And fake a smile
Swear I'm fine
Only you know I'm breaking inside

Fly home
Where you belong
Beyond the stars, far beyond
The greatest depths
Of the twinkling night sky
Tell me what it's like
Looking heaven in the eyes

Fill up the space now
It's so hard when I can't see your smile
The tears I she'd
Like the oceans they go on for miles
Another day
Somehow passed
Are the angels there singing your song?

Fly home
Where you belong
Beyond the stars, far beyond
The greatest depths
Of the twinkling night sky
Tell me what it's like
