Love me
Like you used to Make me feel strong.
Hold me
Like I want you to
Even when the night gets long
I want to love you

Tell me
That you need me
Even though I'm not her.
Kiss me
Like you still want me
Make me see what I was worth.
But I know I'm nothing

Nothing I can say
Can turn tomorrow
To yesterday
Nothing I can promise now
Will make you turn around
And tell one more lie

Break me
Like the last time
I love every single lie
Make me
Run out of tears to cry
Because no matter how I try
I know I'm drowning

Nothing I can say
Can turn tomorrow
To yesterday
Nothing I can promise now
Will make you turn around
And tell one more lie
Tell me one more lie
One more lie
