its not the fact in the act
its the lie in your eyes looking to see makes me whisper goodbyes your words are pointless so im gonna be blunt you cant stab my back if i show you my front threw away my heart when you wasted my trust i give and i give but its never enough you turned away so i walked out on you

(Chorus)x2
so go to sleep and dream of when had me in your arms and then cherish the memories
never feel my touch again

(Chorus)x2

cherish the memories
