Starting
my living my breathing
no ending I'm falling asleep to dream of you flying is becoming my new state of being I'm leaving all caution behind

no matter how I try
I can't seem to wrap my head around the fact I should be going slower you're all I want to talk to
I just want to love you
I adore you

shaking unending unyielding unbending
you're tugging my heartstrings so loud!
flying is becoming my new state of being

you're all I want to talk to
I just want to love you
I adore you
