Woke up in the drainage ditch out on Interstate 10
My pants were covered in dirt and I was missing my shoes
Last thing I remembered it was late at night
How the hell is it morning already?

Saw the date and thought "how the hell is that possible"
Last I remembered it was June 7th
Everywhere I go it said it's June 14th
Where the hell is my week?

I can't help but think something sinister happened to me
It bled when I took a shit last night
I'm having vivid dreams of a disinfected futuristic place
Did the aliens rape my soul again?

Disturbed
Obscured
Missing
Last Week
