Come let me out I will be true
I'll never cease to amaze you
'cos I do believe in what they say
And I will answer in my own way

And you can shine your light down on me
And I'll stand out here for everyone to see
I'd gladly sacrifice my every night
For the voices to be free

Come let me out I will be free
I'll never cease to amaze you
I do believe in what they say
And I will answer in my own way

Into the early hours
Put ribbons round the flowers
Who took the daughter down
And made her die
I am the one who told you

There is no one above you
There is no one above you to come down

So deepen the shallow shallow the deep
And you will answer in your sleep
I do believe in what they say
And I will answer in my own way
That one that heeds the call
Is not the one that needs me
Sorrow is the crime
That took me down and crowned me

So deepen the shallow shallow the
