I'm down on my luck I'm downing myself
I'm drowning my sorrows up on my shelf
And if I ever recover this time
I will happy out of my mind

I can be even I will be even
Even I can be even I will be
And if I ever discover this kind
I will be happy out of my mind

I've never seen people like you before
You're soft and you're falling down on my floor
If there's a will there's a way and I'm the one
To discover the other is only a matter of fun

Travelling further than just out of my mind
I dreamt that I saw you since you were dead
And I want to swirl around heavenly places
Take a kick in the face like the quiver of graces

I've never seen people like you before
You're soft and you're falling down on my floor
If there's a will there's a way and I'm the one
To discover the other is only a matter of fun

I can be even I will be even
Even I can be even I will be
And if I ever discover this kind
I will be happy out of my mind

Down on my luck downing myself
I'm drowning my sorrows fall from my shelf
And if I ever discover this kind
I will be happy out of my mind
