

Richard Harris

"I'm Comin' Home"

Visit "I'm Comin' Home" on MotoLyrics.com

Hello babe, now I know it's late, but won't you hear me out
I was doing alright til my darkest night kinda drew me
out
Long as I live, I'll never understand what life is all about And I long to see you.

I feel like a heel, like the kind that you find on a movie screen
It's that story about the odd man out in the final scene - you know what I mean
And I've got to get back to the firelight of our cozy dream
Yes I long to be with you.

I'm coming home, if you'll take me back again
I'm coming home, if you'll give me one more chance
I'm coming home, if you say it's ok.

I'm telling you now: that I let you down is more than I can bear
When I'm out in a storm, and I miss the warm of an easy chair, love to be there Safe in the circle of the love and the life that we used to share, we used to share.

I'm coming home, if you'll take me back again
I'm coming home, if you'll give me one more chance
I'm coming home, if you say it's ok.

Visit Richard Harris page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.