This time the difference is
I've got no one calling me back
From this edge
This time the difference is
I've got no one wanting me back
From this edge

I'm not sorry I'll never be sorry
'Cos this time I'm waiting in your room
Can you hear me

So hopelessly we fell
That the only thought in my head
Was of you
You're sailing on the blue
But like no one else that you know
I see you

I'm not sorry I'll never be sorry
'Cos this time I'm waiting in your room
Can you hear me

Carefree on a night
When I lead you down to our river
Took your hand
And keeping me in sight
You took off when rainbow called
You took my life
I stayed by honesty
And I waited wanting the stories of your face
For taking you away
With the water I threw daisies on your place

I'm not sorry I'll never be sorry...
