Grandma every since you been gone i been acting a fool cutting up and i even dropped out of my school i thought it was cool i hung around with the fools,i moved to mississippi they had me sangin the blues,i lived with you every since i was 2, when i was 5 you sent me off to the schools every summer headed down to the pool every thang changed when you left grandma i wish you was here i still miss you after all them years midas well wipe the tears aint no need in crying grandma
i know you heard look at all these young people dying.
