This is the day of the cutting edge
I swear I won't forget what we had
I remember why we broke up
You were the one to say it's over

Something went wrong while I've been out there
Something happened that I won't forget
You've been standing in the corner
Crying like it was really over
(Really over, really over)

Thought you're gonna call me later tonight
I believed I won't regret what I did so far
I'm working so hard, I'm working crazy
Why can't you believe me baby?

This is the day of the cutting edge

I remember why we broke up
You were the one to say it's over

Hey!

Something went wrong while I've been out there
Something happened that I won't forget
You've been standing in the corner
Crying like it was really over
(Really over, really over)

Thought you're gonna call me later tonight
I believed I won't regret what I did so far
I'm working so hard, I'm working crazy
Why can't you believe me baby?
