Every time you tell me not to worry
I just can't comply
It never came that easy
Just to step aside
Would be the end of everything I've learned

Keep the record straight
Keep it soft to good refrain
It's the same dumb melody
Sung a thousand different ways
Every single time I look at you
I think of all the good you've yet to do

Tell me something
Am I still the only one
Who thinks that maybe
Patience still the time hasn't come
Keep it up it'll get much better
Rest assured I'm sure you're fine
Keep it up it'll get much better
I swear to God you'll be OK
OK, OK, OK, OK
You'll be OK

Every time you tell that you're doubtful
I just can't decide
If I'm the one who caused all of your pain

Keep the record straight
Something soft to good refrain
It's the same old remedy
Stirred a thousand different ways
Every single lesson you've ever learned
Won't do us good if we don't keep our word

Tell me something
Am I still the only one
Who thinks that maybe
Patience still the time hasn't come
Keep it up it'll get much better
Rest assured I'm sure you're fine

Keep it up it'll get much better
I swear to God you'll be OK
OK, OK, OK, OK

I can't seem to find
Your quick research in not to and what to hope
I'll keep waiting for this sign
To take me home

Tell me something
Am I still the only one
Who thinks that maybe
Patience still the time hasn't come
Keep it up it'll get much better
Rest assured I'm sure you're fine
Keep it up it'll get much better
I swear to God you'll be OK

Tell me something
Am I still the only one
Who thinks that maybe
Patience still the time hasn't come
Keep it up it'll get much better
Rest assured I'm sure you're fine
Keep it up it'll get much better
I swear to God you'll be OK
OK
I swear to God you'll be OK
OK, OK, OK
You'll be o...
