What should I wish for? I have found everything I ever wished for I love you to the fullest, my soul always needs you

If I say, you make my words longer..Your the most precious thing

My soul loves i and feels comfortable, and my eyes are always missing you

With you I live dreams that never end, and I live my life for you

No matter what I say it's not enough for you, the prettiest thing in you is the smile in your eyes, My love come closer to me, everything in me is calling for you Take me to a world I never been in, let me a live a moment I've never lived in, when I'm in your hands I would be missing you,,when your with me I would be also missing you
