We find just as long as I try
I put my hands down and I've no place to hide
Now honey don't look back
Because it might just break our hearts

We find 'cause I don't give a damn
I pull the strings tight with your heart in my hand
Now honey don't look back
Because it might just break our hearts

I wasn't wrong, I wasn't right
You're thinking it over with an easy mind
Well, if I did you wrong I apologize
But if I had the chance I might do it twice to you now

We find just as long as I try
To get the songs right and to get them in time
You know I can't look back
Because it might just break our hearts

I wasn't wrong, I wasn't right
You're thinking it over with an easy mind
Well, if I did you wrong I apologize
But if I had the chance I might do it twice to you now
