I love kittens and little babies
Can't you see that's the guy I am?
And your money is so safe with me
You never met such an honest man

Glossies on my office wall
The rich and famous, I know them all

Come on and do the money shuffle
I've got you right there where I want you
Come on and do the money shuffle
Can't find your money if you want to

Stock market going through the roof now
So rich I'll never add it up now
I've got your savings here somewhere

Here at Warbrook and Jones it's all tradition
We never pimp and we don't hustle
If you'll just bend over a little
I think you'll feel my financial muscle

Spread it wide, wide as you can
To get the full benefit of my plan

I said, come on and do the money shuffle
I've got you right there where I want you
Come on and do the money shuffle
Can't find your money if you want to

My God, the market's in a free fall
I'll save my arse and skip the country
Wish I knew the hell what I was doing

This year, think I'll skip Monte
One tires of the same old social scene
With all the problems in the world today
They'll notice if my bonus is obscene

Spread it wide, wide as you can
To get the full benefit of my plan

I said, come on and do the money shuffle
I've got you right there where I want you
Come on and do the money shuffle
Can't find your money if you want to

Stock market going through the roof now
So rich I'll never add it up now
I've got your savings here somewhere

Come on and do the money shuffle
Come on and do the money shuffle
Come on and do the money shuffle
