Strange, everything comes so late
Sometimes I think it must be my fate
It's always so hard to see
What we really want to be
What we really want to be

Strange, suddenly I'm turning old
When I have finished with my search for gold
All of a sudden, getting free
Finally I've found the key
Tied forever, you and me

Sailing together bravely, you and me
Sailing together across the storming sea
You're wiping out the loneliness
Showing the way, my way to happiness

All of a sudden, getting free
Finally I've found the key
Tied forever, you and me

Sailing together bravely, you and me
Sailing together across the storming sea
You're wiping out the loneliness
Showing the way, my way to happiness

Sailing together bravely, you and me
Sailing together to eternity
You're wiping out the loneliness
Showing the way, my way to happiness
